Welcome aboard @Name (Full Name)

Please introduce yourself to our team here. Thank You!

- Step 5:

Step A: Send this message to the candidate:

I have added you to the Organization group. Please introduce yourself to the team.

-Share your full name and how it's pronounced. Please include your preferred pronouns as well. You can also mention if your name has a special meaning, as it's always interesting to learn about names from different cultures.

-Mention what you are currently studying or your completed degree, along with your school's name, location, and present time zone. Also include any previous work experience you would like to highlight.

-Talk about what inspired you to choose your current field and what keeps you passionate about it. You can also share how this field connects to the goals you wish to create in the future.

-Feel free to discuss a problem you're deeply passionate about and would like to tackle using innovation. Also share your hobbies or interests outside of work or studies.

-You can also include a short note about your personal journey and the experiences that have shaped who you are today.

Please make sure your introduction is written in paragraph style, not line by line. Thank you!

Steb B: Send this message to the candidate:

Once you’ve completed posting your introduction, please get in touch with HR regarding your offer letter. When doing so, share the details related to the offer letter and attach your Government ID (EAD card – both sides) in PDF format, naming the file as your First Name Last Name. Please note that no backdated offer letters will be issued.
